Dear Parents,

My name is Allison Ochs. I am a social worker/pedagogue, author, lecturer, teacher, and consultant.

I am looking forward to hosting two online workshops with clearly defined themes to help you understand your children, their online space, and what you can do to help them manage this. There will be time for discussion and questions in each workshop.

If you are not interested in one of the two topics, I encourage you to join anyway.

Some of the takeaways might be as simple as being a great friend to someone struggling with one of these issues within their home. Other takeaways:

- greater understanding for your children and the space the virtual world they spend time in;
- understanding warning signs of a child in need and what to do;
- great ideas to start conversations with your children and keep the lines of communication open;
- a space to ponder on these issues with a group of motivated parents and get feedback and ideas;
- ideas on how to keep your children safe, balanced and harmonious in your home.

See you online,

Allison Ochs
